1. Scope and purpose of the policy:

Related party transactions can present a potential or actual conflict of interest which may be against the best interest of the company and its members. Considering the requirements for approval of related party transactions as prescribed under the Companies Act, 2013 ("Act") read with the Rules framed there under and Regulation 23 and Regulation 62K of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Regulation 23"), Alpha Alternatives Financial Services Private Limited ("AAFSPL" / Company) has formulated guidelines for identification of related parties and the proper conduct and documentation of all related party transactions.

Regulation 23(1) of the SEBI Listing Regulations requires the company to formulate a policy on materiality of related party transactions and dealing with related party transactions.

Regulation 62K of SEBI LODR, which applies to High Value Debt Listed Entities (HVDLEs) — i.e., entities with outstanding listed debt of ₹5000 crore or more — mandates a Special Approval Mechanism for Material Related Party Transactions, which involves prior No-Objection from the Debenture Trustee and debenture holders. As the Company's outstanding listed debt is currently approaching ₹5,000 crore (the threshold for HVDLE classification), this Policy is being proactively structured to include the requirements under Regulation 62K

Definition added in continuation to the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Credit Risk Management) Amendment Directions, 2026, pertaining to Lending to Related Parties by the Company

In the light of the above, the Company has framed this Policy on Related Party Transactions ("Policy"). This Policy has been adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company. Going forward, the Audit Committee will review and amend the Policy, as and when required, subject to adoption by the Board.

Alpha Alternatives Financial Services Private Limited ("AAFSPL") shall engage with Related Parties on an arm's length basis to leverage scale, size and drive operational synergies to provide value added, innovative products to its consumers while ensuring that transactions with Related Parties are, fully compliant with applicable Regulations.

2. Objective of the policy

The objective of this Policy is to set out (a) the materiality thresholds for related party transactions and; (b) the manner of dealing with the transactions between the Company and its related parties based on the Act, Regulation 23 of the SEBI Listing Regulations and any other laws and regulations as may be applicable to the Company.

This Policy is intended to ensure that proper reporting, approval and disclosure processes are in place for transactions between the Company and Related Parties. This policy specifically deals with the review and approval of all material Related Party Transactions keeping in mind the potential or actual conflicts of interest that may arise because of entering into these transactions.

In addition to the above, the following kinds of transactions with related parties are also placed before the Board for its approval:

- a) Transactions which may be in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which are as per the policy determined by the Board from time to time (i.e. value threshold and/or other parameters) require Board approval in addition to Audit Committee approval;
- b) Transactions in respect of which the Audit Committee is unable to determine whether or not they are in the ordinary course of business and/or at arm's length basis and decides to refer the same to the Board for approval;
- c) Transactions which are in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which as per Audit Committee requires Board approval

d) Transactions meeting the materiality thresholds laid down in Clause 4 of the Policy, which are intended to be placed before the shareholders for approval.

8. Procedure and timelines for the NOC process: :

In the event that the Company's outstanding principal debt reaches or exceeds ₹5,000 crore at any point during the financial year, as per Regulation 62K read with Regulation 15(1A) of SEBI LODR, the Company shall be classified as a High Value Debt Listed Entity ("HVDLE"). Upon such classification, the following steps shall be adhered:

8.1 — Initiation of NOC Process

Prior to entering into any Material Related Party Transaction, the Company shall intimate the Debenture Trustee in writing at least 10 (ten) working days before the proposed transaction, providing the following details:

- Name of the related party and nature of relationship
- Nature, purpose and commercial rationale of the transaction
- Estimated value of the transaction
- Confirmation that the transaction is at arm's length basis
- Management justification for entering into the transaction

8.2 — Debenture Holder Voting

Upon receipt of the intimation, the Debenture Trustee shall circulate the proposal to all debenture holders who are not related to the Issuer and shall conduct an e-voting process, which shall remain open for a minimum of 3 (three) working days. The NOC shall be deemed granted if debenture holders holding more than 50% in value of the outstanding debentures (excluding related debenture holders) vote in favour of the transaction.

8.3 — Validity of NOC

The NOC obtained under this Section shall be transaction-specific and shall not be construed as an omnibus approval for any future transactions, even if of a similar nature.

8.4 — Stock Exchange Reporting

The outcome of the debenture holder voting shall be reported to the stock exchange where the Company's debt securities are listed within 24 hours of conclusion of the voting process.

8.5 — Sequence of Approvals

The NOC process under this Section shall be completed prior to placing the transaction before the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors for their respective approvals under Clause 6 and Clause 7 of this Policy. No transaction requiring NOC under Regulation 62K shall be placed before the Audit Committee without first obtaining such NOC.

9. Approval of the Shareholders of the Company

All the transactions with related parties exceeding the materiality thresholds, laid down in Clause 4 of the Policy, are placed before the shareholders for approval.

For this purpose, all entities falling under the definition of related parties shall abstain from voting irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not.

In addition to the above, all kinds of transactions specified under Section 188 of the Act which (a) are not at Arm's Length or not in the ordinary course of business; and (b) exceed the thresholds laid down in Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 are placed before the shareholders for its approval.

However, the requirement of shareholders' approval shall not be applicable for transactions entered into between the company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with the company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

10. Disclosures

The Company shall disclose, in the Board's report, transactions prescribed in Section 188(1) of the Act with related parties, which are not in ordinary course of business or not at arm's length basis along with the justification for entering into such transaction.

In addition to the above, the Company shall also provide details of all related party transactions exceeding the materiality threshold (laid down in Clause 4 of the Policy above) on a quarterly basis to the stock exchanges.

11. Related party transactions not approved under this policy

In the event the Company becomes aware of a transaction with a related party that has not been approved in accordance with this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall consider all the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the related party transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the related party transaction. The Audit Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such related party transaction to the Audit Committee under this Policy and failure of the internal control systems and shall take any such action it deems appropriate.

In any case, where the Audit Committee determines not to ratify a related party transaction that has been commenced without approval, the Audit Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, discontinuation of the transaction or seeking the approval of the shareholders, payment of compensation by the defaulting person (as may be decided by the Audit Committee) to the related party or the Company as the case may be, etc. In connection with any review/approval of a related party transaction, the Audit Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

12. Review of the policy

The adequacy of this Policy shall be reviewed and reassessed by the Committee periodically and appropriate recommendations shall be made to the Board to update the Charter based on the changes that may be brought about due to any regulatory amendments or otherwise.
